Mutuality and trust-based learning among peers – issues and prospects in facilitating institutional reform

Moderator: Ms. Leila Brosnan, International Adviser, Global Learning, Government Partnerships International (GPI)

Case 1 (10 min)

This case looks at the Commonwealth Partnerships for Antimicrobial Stewardship Programme (CwPAMS) – a partnership between UK NHS staff and counterparts and peers in Uganda. The presentation will consider how mutual trust has been developed and achieved within the partnership, and how this has improved outputs.

Presenters:

- Mrs. Sarah Cavanagh, International Partnerships Lead, Commonwealth Pharmacists Association
 - Mrs. Claire Brandish, Anti-Infectives Pharmacist, Buckinghamshire Healthcare NHS trust

Case 2 (10 min)

Does Trust Always Equal Mutuality? This case considers a GPI-supported partnership pointing to an important differentiation between trust and mutuality in the P2P context, and the role of MEL approaches in detecting and monitoring such discrepancies.

Presenter:

- Ms. Lauren Sweeney, Monitoring, Evaluation and Learning Advisor, Government Partnerships International (GPI)

Case 3 (10 min)

This case considers lessons on trust and mutuality drawn from BNEW's peer partnership with The Hunger Project: the importance of trust-building between the two organisations, factors that strengthened mutuality, and risks and challenges encountered along the way.

Presenter:

- Ms. Phuntshok Chhoden, Head of the Bhutan Network for Empowering Women (BNEW)

Reflections from respondents (15 min)

- Ms. Preeta Lall, Team Leader, Local Governance Initiative and Network (LOGIN), India
- Ms. Rose Wanjiru, Executive Director, Centre for Economic Governance (CEG), Kenya

Q&A (15 min)

14.10-14.50

Open discussion

Moderator: Ms. Leila Brosnan, International Adviser, Global Learning, Government Partnerships International (GPI)

Guiding questions

- How is trust and mutuality best supported in different kinds of partnerships?
- How can mutual learning be facilitated through communication and the co-definition of objectives?
- How can MEL approaches be designed and applied, both to track results and support further learning?

14.50-15.00

Wrap-up and closing

- Ms. Leila Brosnan, International Adviser, Global Learning, Government Partnerships International (GPI)
 - Ms. Catherine Anderson, Team Lead, OECD EIP Secretariat
