Local government finance legislation in Albania

How networked P2P exchanges can lead to improved institutional laws and policies

Fran Brahimi, Director, Ministry of Finance and Economy of Albania

Elton Stafa, Project Manager, NALAS - Network of Associations of Local Authorities of South-East Europe
The interconnected system of P2P learning and knowledge sharing that enabled the effective passage of the LAW
Law on Local Self-Government Finance: Measured Impact

Pillars of the Law on Local Self-Government Finance:

- Fiscal and Financial Autonomy
- Fiscal and Financial Discipline
- Open Inter-Governmental Dialogue

42% more revenues than in 2015
REGIONAL COMPARATIVE SURVEY
BEST PRACTICES IN LOCAL GOVERNMENT FINANCE LEGISLATION
THE SOUTH-EAST EUROPE EXPERIENCE AND THE CHALLENGES FACING ALBANIA
FEATURES

Setting: One on one, individual
Format: Informal
Trace: Not documented
Impact: Behavioral, individual skills

FEATURES

Setting: Organizational level
Format: Formal, Structured
Trace: Documented, published
Impact: Institutional, Policy level

Continuum of NALAS Peer Learning Practices

- Informal learning
  - Monitoring / Impact

- Formal learning
  - EVENTS / BREAKS
  - SHADOWING / KNOWLEDGE TANDEMS
  - LGA PEER EXCHANGE / REVIEW
  - QUICK RESPONSE PROGRAM
  - BENCHLEARNING
    - Monitoring decentralisation, services, finances
    - Data comparisons
    - Evidence based policy making
    - Best practices
  - SECTORAL PEER EXCHANGE
    - Local Finance
    - Social Services
    - Water and Sanitation Services
Thank you

Fran Brahimi, Director, Ministry of Finance and Economy of Albania
fran.brahimi@financa.gov.al / www.financa.gov.al

Elton Stafa, Expert, NALAS - Network of Associations of Local Authorities of South-East Europe stafa@nalas.eu / www.nalas.eu